

First Lady Terra Allen Bio

First Lady Terra Allen is a wife, mother, grandmother, Soldier, worship leader, and, most importantly, a child of God. She has been married to Rev. Dr. Marcus Allen for 19 years. She has proudly served in the United States Army for more than 20 years. First Lady Allen holds an undergraduate degree from Austin Peay State University and a graduate degree from the University of Wisconsin–Madison. She has a heart for encouraging women, particularly those who may feel lost, lonely, overlooked, or left out. In her personal time, she enjoys reading, singing, and spending time with her family.
