

Rev. Jeremiah Covington

Reverend Jeremiah Covington is a faithful member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. He is heavily involved in teaching and preaching God's Word. He has been part of the Madison community for over half his life.

Covington is committed to uplifting and inspiring youth. He has worked in youth-related fields with the Madison Metropolitan School District for over 15 years. At Mt. Zion Baptist Church, he actively teaches the Teens Bible Study class. He also oversees the Youth Mentorship Program for foster youth with MTZ Charitable Org., Inc. Covington grew up as a "boy preacher." His passion for using the gifts God has given him has always kept him involved in serving the community.
